The advertisement for Kybella features a large image of a woman's face on the right side, looking upwards and to the right. To the left of her face is the Kybella logo, which consists of a stylized orange 'K' above the word 'kybella' in a lowercase, sans-serif font. Below the logo, the text reads 'FDA-Approved Injection' and 'To Help You Say Goodbye To A Double Chin'. At the bottom of the advertisement, there is a horizontal strip of eight small, square images showing a man's chin and neck area from various angles, illustrating the results of the treatment.
